Dear Forumers,
Farewell ~~my friends~~ people of the forums. I know you don't want me here. Don't deny it. I won't listen. I am now used to everyone I meet hating me. I know you think I'm annoying and rude, which I may be. It is time for me to leave. I need to live in the real world anyway. Summer is nearing and yes, I would have more time to come on, but I need to enjoy my trip to Alaska, to San Diego, and just relaxing. Before I go I would like to state some things. (Some people may not come on often or not anymore.)

Hydra: Thank you for being so friendly to me when I first joined.
Angel: You always seemed smart and cool.
Longclaw: I'm sorry.
Fennec: I don't know you very well but you seem like a nice person.
Dynasty: I'm sorry I got so mad.
Tui T. Sutherland: Thank you for writing this awesome series. I will continue to read it.
And Everyone else: I know each and every one of you is special. Don't let anyone tell you that you aren't.

Goodbye. I may visit, to see what is going on, but I won't post. You won't know I'm here.
~~Love,~~
Sincerely, Splashy

You're being very melodramatic. You made some mistakes, we all do. You're human. You can accept the fact that you messed up and move on.
If you are going to leave, I wish you the best in life and hope you have an amazing future ahead of you.

Follow your own advice.

You're special, too, and don't let anyone else tell you otherwise.

~~Also WHAT! YOU'RE GOING TO SAN DIEGO!~~

You have to come back on, dark times don't last, there will be light, please, I know it's been awhile since this was made, but if you are reading this, please come back on, I bet some people miss you, but you were probably lying so people wouldn't feel too sad, but if you do end up reading this, please just think about coming back on again, at least give it a try.
